

The Straight Gate Project

Building Community – Christian Prison Recovery and Aftercare

The Straight Gate gratefully accepts all donations as tax deductible contributions in order to provide decent, comfortable housing and a full spectrum of campus services including "Welcome Back" to civil society classes; Bible studies; personal, one on one mentoring (including twelve step and other substance abuse recovery programs), job search and documentation assistance, job training programs, periodic supplements of food, clothing, toiletries and sundries, eye glasses and bus passes, and other relevant attentions, as well as supportive mentoring and monitoring.

The following are examples of what your contributions provide through The Straight Gate in the form of housing and the above campus accessories:
